Mary Turgi is a Sister of the Holy Cross and currently serves as the Director of the Holy Cross International Justice Office located on Saint Mary’s campus. Prior to accepting that position, she was Community Development Coordinator at what is now known as the Center for Great Neighborhoods in Covington, KY.

Mary has lived at various locations in the neighborhood at different times of her life, for a grand total of 25 years. She served on the NNN Board from 2001-2011, 2013-2018, and has served as Board President for over six year long terms previously.

Mary brings Community Organizing experience to the Board as well as skills in Leadership and Organizational Development.

Michael McGee grew up on the NNN near Lindsey and Sherman, and remains strongly connected to family and the church in that area, serving as an elder at Kingdom Life Cathedral. Michael works for the City of South Bend as a driver for the Department of Sanitation and at the South Bend Airport.

Michael has served on the Community Organizing Steering Committee for the NNN in 2017-2019, and remains in participation with the NNN’s efforts in community organizing.

Michael brings a desire to grow in leadership, as well as strong experience in the neighborhood and community.
